YESTERDAY.
Holy Thursday.
TO-DAY.
Society attends Good Friday services in the churches.

Beautiful Operetta.
Rehearsals for the operetta, "The Riding Hood," progress merrily, each member of the cast, from the most important soloist down, being well-nigh perfect now in her part.

Miss Mary Wade will take the part of Red Riding Hood's mother, and she has opportunity for showing her voice to great advantage in the several duets and solos assigned to her.

Miss Emily Wade, as the schoolgirl, and Miss Mary Covington Evans, as Red Riding Hood, have no less important parts to play. They will be remembered for their excellent work in the same roles last year, when the operetta was given so successfully in Woman's Club.

Mr. Eldon Walker will play the role of the Wolf, and will prove as terrifying in this character as heart could wish. Mr. Douglas Gordon sings the part of the Woodman with splendid effect, and his solo, "The Woodman's Life," is one of the hits of the performance.

Mrs. Grymes is training the little ones to whirl and pirouette in the most graceful of dances, and Miss Ellen Guilford has charge of the chorus work.

Beautiful scenery and costumes will make up a pretty picture when the curtain goes up in Belvidere Hall next Wednesday afternoon.

Performances on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock and on Thursday and Friday evenings at 8 o'clock will give ample opportunity for all to attend the presentation of this dainty play.

All proceeds will go to the Sheltering Arms Free Hospital through the Kate Emile Guilford and Belle Harrison Memorial Circles, King's Daughters. Tickets are in charge of Mrs. T. M. Rutherford, of No. 112 East Grace Street, and Mrs. A. L. Welford, of No. 114 North Cherry Street, and are on sale at the following places: The Chatterbox, Woman's Exchange, Shepherd's, Rosemary Library, The Jefferson, and Snyder & Hundley's.

For Ascension Chapel.
An Easter supper and sale will be given on Wednesday evening next, from 5 to 11 o'clock, in the home of Mrs. Linn B. Enslow, Third Avenue and Burns Street, Highland Park, under the auspices of the Ladies' Guild of Ascension Chapel.

An elegant supper, followed by ice-cream and cake, will be served, and an attractive program of music and recitations will be rendered. All kinds of fancy articles, especially paper novelties, will be on sale.

Among the young ladies who will assist are Misses Eleanor and Margaret Enslow, Claire Shafer, Dorothy Brown, Grace Phillips, Virginia Hughes, Alma Vaughan, Camille Cary and the Misses Cross.

Ladies of the guild are Mrs. W. R. Naylor, Mrs. L. B. Enslow, Mrs. C. G. Shafer, Mrs. J. R. Lindsay, Mrs. Paul Todd, Mrs. J. W. Burruss, Mrs. Mary Phillips, Mrs. Warren, Mrs. Robert Hughes, Mrs. William McDowell, Miss Lucy Dalton, Miss Florence Stacy, Mrs. Reuben Knott, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Linn Harrison, Mrs. W. H. Easter Egg Hunt.
Misses Louise Lorraine, Louise Kennedy, Sophie Garlick and Marguerite Slaughter will be in charge of an Easter egg hunt to be given Monday morning from 10 to 1 o'clock in the lecture-room of the First Baptist Church.

The young ladies will see that the children have a pleasant time, and Hymn of Pan.

By PERCY BYSSHE SHELLEY.

Other selections from this author, his portrait, autograph and biographical sketch, have already been printed in this series.

From the forests and highlands
We come, we come;
From the river-girt islands,
Where loud waves are dumb

Listening to my sweet pippings.
The bees on the bells of thyme,
The birds on the myrtle bushes,
The cicale above in the lime,

And the lizards below in the grass,
Were as silent as ever old Tmolus was,
Listening to my sweet pippings.

Liquid Peneus was flowing,
And all dark Tempe lay
In Pelion's shadow, outgrowing
The light of the dying day.

Speeded by my sweet pippings,
The Sileas, and Sylvans, and Fauns,
And the Nymphs of the woods and waves,
To the edge of the moist river-laws,

And the brink of the dewy caves,
And all that did then attend and follow,
Were silent with love, as you now, Apollo,
With envy of my sweet pippings.

I sang of the dancing stars,
I sang of the daedal Earth,
And of Heaven—and the giant wars,
And Love, and Death, and Birth.

And then I changed my pippings—
Singing how down the vale of Menalus
I pursued a maiden and clasped a reed:
Gods and men, we are all deluded thus!

It breaks in our bosom and then we bleed:
All wept, as I think both ye now would,
If envy or age had not frozen your blood,
At the sorrow of my sweet pippings.

REPAINTING LIBRARY.

Interior of Building Being Made More Attractive.

The work of repainting the library building, which was begun some days ago by direction of the Governor and the custodian of grounds and buildings, is now well advanced.

Stewart Jones, of the Supreme Court of Appeals, took the initiative in the matter, having the courtroom and clerk's offices and consultation-rooms handsomely repainted months ago. The remainder of the library building was so shabby looking within as to make it appear disreputable in contrast. The work is being done out of the contingent fund.

The colors chosen are Colonial, the walls and ceiling being of Colonial yellow, with a wainscoting of brown in the vestibule. A great improvement will have been made when the work is completed.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, VA., March 28.—"Empire Day," commemorating the birth of Queen Victoria, may be held at the Jamestown Exposition. In a letter received to-day by C. Brooks Johnson, chairman of the board of governors of the exposition, from Charles W. Kahlisat, commissioner-general of the exposition, it was stated that Captain Wells, of the British Admiralty, London, had suggested that "Empire Day" be celebrated at the exposition on May 24th, the anniversary of the birth of Queen Victoria, and that the day be known as British Day.

GOES TO GRAND JURY.
Young Man Charged With Aiding Prisoners to Escape.

In the Police Court yesterday the young white man Richard Hardesty was sent to the grand jury on the charge of aiding two prisoners to escape from the city jail.

It is alleged that Hardesty gave the prisoners ropes and a saw with which to aid them in their escape, and it was shown by a prisoner named John Morgan that such articles were brought to the jail by Hardesty, and that by the use of the saw and the rope the two men, who were county prisoners, had made their escape.

Morgan was the informant, and it was largely through him that the case against Hardesty was worked up.

The case will go before the April grand jury.

CITY TEACHERS GET MONEY AND ARE HAPPY

Pay-Roll Yesterday Amounted to $28,000, Largest in History of the Board.

The school teachers of the city, and more especially the white teachers, were made happy yesterday by the payment of their March salaries, augmented by the recent increase, and in addition thereto the amount of the increase for the months of February and January. Thus the various teachers received amounts varying from $15 to about $65 in a jump, besides their regular salaries at the new figure.

Though the raise was not received in time to enable the teachers to order new frocks or hats for the Easter parade, it is likely that many of them had anticipated the day of joy and ordered their millinery and dress goods on the prospects.

So far as can be ascertained all the teachers are entirely satisfied, for the present at least, and are happy that they are the better enabled to provide for their own needs for the spring and the long summer vacation and for those dependent upon them.

The amount of the monthly pay-roll yesterday, including the arrears, was about $28,000, the largest ever known here. This includes the teachers in the new territory.
